

4. Open Studio July Friday July 20th. Some experience to advanced

This class is open to people who have painting experience. There will be a specific subject for those who are interested, but class members may also work from their own imagination, or their own photographs. There will be discussions about colour theory and some of the principles of art and design. Degen offers encouragement and practical information, and makes suggestions about the paintings being created.

Materials required: Your choice as to panel or canvas, paints, brushes, easel. Some easels will be provided.

Instructor: *Degen Lindner is a practicing artist and teacher. Her works range from drawing and painting the figure to landscapes and abstracts. She has had her work commissioned and has participated in numerous individual and group shows. Degen has a Masters of Fine Arts and a Bachelor of Education. She teaches through the Continuing and Distance Education Program through the University of Sask., has been an instructor for the Mendel Art Gallery in Saskatoon, and has taught for the Community Arts Program and the Emma Lake Workshops for many years. Degen has also had a

